

Teacher of Girls PE (MPS) Required for September 2019

We would like to appoint an outstanding Teacher of Girls PE to ensure our students are challenged to make excellent progress. We are seeking an individual with integrity, drive and a commitment to further strengthen our PE team.

The successful candidate will be a talented teacher, with excellent subject knowledge and be well informed about the current and developing educational landscape. Passion for life-long learning and a relentless focus on the achievement of every student will be integral elements to your practice.

The PE faculty is a real strength of our school and strives to meet the challenges of the new specifications and achieve excellent outcomes for our students.

The PE faculty is a strong team, who work closely together to develop and lead excellent practice across the school and with other schools within and beyond the MAT.

If you have a desire to join a high performing team in a school which has the greatest expectations of both staff and students then we would welcome your application.

We welcome visits to our school and appointments can be made by contacting Lorraine Parker (Headteacher's PA) – lparker@egacademy.org.uk or telephoning 024 76453121.
